Detailed ActionElection and Restriction
(3/7/08)

1. This application, as best understood, contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- Species A - directed towards Fig. 1
- Species B - directed towards Fig. 2
- Species C - directed towards Fig. 3
- Species D - directed towards Fig. 4
- Species E - directed towards Fig. 5
- Species F - directed towards Fig. 6
- Species G - directed towards Fig. 7
- Species H - directed towards Fig. 8

2. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species and associated figures for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. As best understood, Examiner has identified the Species (A, B, C, etc.) but Applicant may amend, with a detailed explanation, the composition of each species (A, B, C, etc.) to include associated/respective figures/limitations to distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Currently, there appears to be no claim, which is generic to all species.

3. Applicant is advised that a response to this requirement must include an identification of the species and associated figures that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable only on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

4. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by

Deleted: ¶

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required because this application, as best understood, contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct inventions.

- Applicant is required to elect a single invention and associated figures for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. ¶
- Invention A - claims 1-13, directed towards a structural panel. ¶
- Invention B - claims 14, directed towards an automotive vehicle to include a flexible substrate suspended upon the active elements. ¶
- Invention C - claims 15-16, directed towards a method. ¶
- Invention D - claims 17, directed towards ¶
- Invention E - claims 18, directed towards ¶
- Invention F - claims 19, directed towards ¶
- Invention G - claims 20, directed towards ¶
- ¶

Restriction for examination purpose as indicated above is proper because each of these above inventions having various/different limitations are distinct as outlined above and therefore acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and there was (1)

37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP, 809.02(a).

5. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the Examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
